He Bernies the Chicago Party for Adopting the Populist Platform, and Abuses Sewall.

ATLANTA, GA., Nov. 11.-Thomas E. Watson's letter accepting the whie-presidential nomination of the Populist party has at last been given to the public. it was written on October 140s, last to Senator Marion Butler, chairman of the Schaff shall be sent that the contents of the Populat campaign it was surpressed by Sonator butter during the enmalating the reasons that are obvious from a perusal of its contents. The document

Watson will publish fils letter is if in his official organ, The People's

WHY HE ACCEPTED. on, Marion Butier, chillrman ex-offi-o for Notification Committee; ar Sir,-Your letter, giving me for-

I notice of my nomination by the opics Party for the office of Vico-sident, has been received.

It is solely because of my promise do so that I necept the nomination e usual conditions confronting us n my excuse for submitting to the pu air statement of the facts touching to markable campaign, in order that dence was this: It was not a min-y of the Democratic purty which mur-d silver in 1855. It was majority that it—a majority—a majority in the use, a majority in the Senate. And ciples.

T. Watson recites the fight in the ulfst Convention at St. Louis between Bryan Populists and the middle-or-name to harmorte all the difference which existed in the convention and cosented upon that express condition.

"There is no doubt that among the voters of the Democratic party, South demanding an abject surrender at the hands of the Populists. "The leaders of the Democratic party, however, having secured Populist en-dorsement of Mr. Bryan by direct vote in the convention, determined to secure it for Mr. Sewall also, and for this pur-pose they have resorted to the policy of

INSULTED POPULISTS.

instead of meeting the Populists half way, the Democratic managers have demanded that we furnish all the patriotism which the occurion requires, and they not only refuse to make any concessions at all, but they treat with public insult the party whose voice are necessary to promocratic success.

Thy listening to the overtures of Demo-cratic managers our party has been torn into factions, our leaders deceived and ensoured, and the cause we repre-sented permanently endangered. If not lost. The later of many years is swept away, and the hopes of thousands of good neede are gone with it.

The Democratic managers, however, not only claim the Populist vote for Mr. Bryan, who is our nomines, but they claim it also for Mr. Sewall, who is not our nomine, and who was overwhelming.

our nomines, and who was overwhelming-ly rejected when offered to the St. Louis are now told that we must not say We are now told that we must not say anything against Mr. Sewali. We substant explain to the people wherein he is an objectionable candidate, and we must not mention the fact that he is a national banker, a bondholder a railroad magnate, a corporation millionarie, an enemy to organized labor, a beneficiary of trusts, a secker after subsidies of the merchant marine and a reconstitution.

merchant marine and a protectionist of the McKintey variety.

"These things must be kept from the people I am told. Way, sar Have not the voters a right to know for when they are voting?

are voting?

"Both Kansus and Colorado are Populist States and the Populist dominoes are not to receive a single electoral vote in either State. The Democdatic ticket, Brean and Sewall, will receive them ed. Kansas, the people have been soothed the assurance that the Sewall electure ould vote for Watson, provided Wat-

Thus the Populise in Kansas and Colorado have been disfranchised. Works than that they have been delivered, to make where none of their votes count for the Populist firket. They must vote for Sewall and thus clointe their principles. IN NORTH CAROLINA.

"In North Carolina, where fusion had been arranged with the Republicans on the State and county ticket, and with Democrats on the national ticket, Mr. Sewall gets a majority of the electors.

indicate that our vote in North Carolina s undergone a disastrons shrinkage se our National Convention adjourned that the national ticket has been used mercantile purposes. Senator, a reform party has no right to exist if it has no vaind complaint to make. Populists cannot denounce the sins of the two old parties, and yet go into political partnership with them. The moment we make the treaty the war old parties we have no longer any expromises with wrong, it is the right ich suffers. The Democratic managers seem to resent, as a trange piece of impertinence, the fact that the Populists dured to nom-mate a ticket differing at the rear end from their's. "Coming to them with two million, they ant my reinforcements, but they do be ant me to lead them. They need Bluck

That is hardly fair either to Blucher his troops for h

AFTER BUTLER.

"For this attitude upon the part of the Democratic managers, i believe that you senator, are largely responsible.

"You made no effort to a tree do recognized. You publicly stated that I would not to be notified of my nomination. You went into the fusion policy, over my written protest, with all the zeal of a man wanted to elect the Democratic ticket.

"In this I think you were wrong.

party certainly expected you to do all you could to elect the Populist ticket. "Had you demanded Mr. Sewall's withcraite Committee expected to make the demand but that you did not make it.

"From the perversity of temper with which the Democratic managers have refused to do the right thing." It would seem that they prefer Mekinleyism to anything which might seem to be partly a Popullate triumph.

Their sabile purpose is to couple Bryan's election with the complete destruction of the People's partly.

They mean to elect both Bryan and Sewill-both or neither. They cannot endure the thought that the victory shall be shared by Popullan. They are withing to use the Popullat nominee as a lever to move Popullat votes, but not as an any who had any rights they are bound to

THE ST. LOUIS TICKET.

"First-Because Mr. Bryan cannot be otherwise elected.
"Second-Because the triumph of silver cannot be otherwise assured.
"It is hardly necessary for me to say that I heartly endorse the platform upon which I was nominated. In speech in editorial, in paniphiets, I have discussed for several years every issue Populism raises, and my position upon them all is so well known that I need go into no discussion of Populist principles here.

accept second place on the compromise ticket.

"I stood ready to join hands with Mr. Bryan and to aid him in harmonizing Populists and silver Democrats, and in uniting South and West, to the end that had again been told that she must grovel

in the again been told that she must grovel in the dust, and let an Eastern plutocrat put his foot upon her neck.

"Nor does an yone regret more than I do that the Democratic managers, in shaping their fusion deals, have considered those Populists only who were getting loaves and fishes.

"The again to the control of th

They have lost sight of the great army They have lost sight of the great army of the privates, whose honest hearts and sincere souls form the strength of the reinforcement Mr. Bryan needs, These Populists of the rank and file have the spirit of crusaders, and they would die for a principle more quickly than they would sell it.

"These net will not vote for Sewall nor for Sewall electors.
"If Senators Jones and Gorman really wish to defeat McKinley let them lose no time in realizing this truth." no time in realization of time in Yours, etc.

"THOMAS E. WATSON, "Thomson, Ga., Oct. 14, 1896."

Ontrage of an American.

HAVANA, Nov. 5.-The sentence leath passed upon Ernesto Jerez has seen commuted to imprisonment for life. reason given for the commutation e penalty is the loyalty to Spain of a brethers, who are officers in the sh army, o encounter recently reported as having taken place near Lagunillas, Ma-tanzas, where Bernardo Soto, Carlos Macia, and Ramon Hernandez were killed, Macia, and Ramon Hernandez were killed, was merely the rading of a defenceless Cuban hospital by a Spanish column.

A Cardenas correspondent writes; "The treatment of the American citizen Francis J. Larrieu is an outrage. He is a merchant and sugar planter here. In May last he was placed in solitary confinement on charges brought against him by two negrees who had deserted from the patriot army. Later the negroes confessed that their testimony was false, and merely intended to secure good treatment for themselves, because they feared the Spanish would look upon them with the Spanish would look upon them with the Spanish would look upon them with mistrust unless they showed in some way their fealty to Spain. Yet Larrieu was kept in jail, and is likely to remain there if some energetic action is not taken in his favor, for the military judge, who has cognizance of the case, says he will not release him because the testimony of not release him because the testimony of several persons must be heard before a decision is reached. This is equivalent to postponing the trial indefinitely, because the alleged witnesses are abroad or in the patriot ranks.

"The actual reason why he le treated thus is because he is a citizen of the United States. The Spanish here improve every opportunity to humiliate Americans. The American Consul here has done everything in his power to have Larries released, but all in vain. Larries must remain in Jall, the authorities say, until his innocence has been established by the testimony of the missing witnesses."

The first bridges were made of wood, and the earliest that we have any ac-count of was built in Rome, 500 B. C. Julius Caesar erceted the next, for the Populist State, and upon that idea she was allowed 96 votes in our National Convention. The fact that in North Carolina we have not conceded a majority of the electors to Mr. Sewall would

THE BUSINESS REVIVAL.

PIFTEEN FIRMS IN CLEVELAND GIVE EVIDENCE OF PROSPERITY

Resultant From the Election by Either Starting Up or Giving Notice of Their Intention to Do So at Once, important manufacturing concerns here to-day gave evidence of the prosperity resulting from the election by either starting up or giving notice of intention pany, the United Salt Company, the American Wire Company, the Hoffman Bicycle Company, the Avery Stamping Company, the Forest City Paint and Varnish Works, the Cleve and Twist Drill Company, the Kilby Manufacturing Com-pany, the Acme Machine Company, the Taylor & Boggis foundry, the Atha Bolt and Serew Company, the Lennox Chemi-cal Company, the Kingbridge Company, the National Safe and Lock Works, the Brightman Machine Company, and the Cleveland Machine Serew Company. The aggregate number of men to be employed

To Build a Railroad. MOBILE, ALA., Nov. 11.-The Mobile, MOBILE, ALA., Nov. II.—Ine Moone, Jackson and Kansas City railroad, an enterprise begun nearly thirty years ago, but which first was brought to the point of construction tast spring, and which has hung fire since then because of the financial agitation, will be put through without dealy. Presional F. B. Merrill telegraphed from New York to-day: "As direct result of McKinley's election, the construction of the Mobile, Jackson and Kansas will be pushed to completion."

Advertisements for material, including 50,000 cross thes, appear in "S-morrow's

Advertisements for material, including foliate cross ties, appear in 5-merrow's Register. The road is to be 183 miles long, passes through from Mobile through 1 to ten Greene, Perry, Jones, Covington, Simpson, Rankin, and Hind counties. the Illinois Central. It crosses the New Orleans and Northeastern road at Hatin this section will be $1,800,000.

From Half to Full Time. LANCATTER, PA., Nov. 11.—The Far-num Cotton Mills, of this city, employing 1,500 hands, which have been running on half time since May last, has posted a notice that hereafter they would run on

MR. INMAN'S WILL.

His Property to Be D vided Among His Family-The Executors.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The will of John H. Inman was made public to-day. The executors and trustees of such trusts as are created are his wife. Margaret C., his brother, Samuel M.; his son, Hugh M.; and, when of age, his son, John H., Jr. 1f, for any cause, Samuel M. Inman declines to serve, J. Edward Simmons is named in his stead. The executors and trustees are to serve withexecutors and trustees are to serve without bonds, and the testator specially directs that they be permitted to qualify a sum not to exceed £00,000, in cash or securities, for three years or such less time as required to liquidate the busi-dispose of the same by will.

The value of the estate is not given, and the lawyers for the testator state that it cannot be determined at present,

Wants France and Germany to Make Up. LONDON, Nov. 11.—The Daily News o-morrow will publish a dispatch from its Berlin correspondent saying that the ng France to forget and forgive the quirement of Alsace-Lorraine by Ger-many, and to become reconciled with that country. The article contends that the peace of Europe is only endangered by the indulgence of France in thoughts of revenge, and urges the French people to remember other nations, especially Russia, Austria, and Germany, have had to swallow various reverses. In conclusion the Vicadomatsi recalls the proofs repeatedly given by the Kalser of his readiness to approach France, and intimates that Russia would willingly act as a mediator between the two nations should her services in such capacity be desired.

Trial of Sanguilly,

Trial of Sanguilly,

HAVANA, Nov. II.—Telegraphic advices have been received here from ColGarandemi, at Guanajay, that General Weyler and the troops accompanying him are encamped in the hills at Rubi. Colonel Garamendi urges that a steamer be sent to Cabanas to convey to Havana seven officers and fifty-four privates of the Spanish army, who are suffering from wounds received in an engagement, the details of which are not given.

wounds received in an engagement, the details of which are not given.

The civil trial in the Supreme Court of Julio Sanguilly, the naturalized American citizen who was arrested in 1895 on the charge of conspiracy against the Spanish authorities, and after conviction by a court-martial, sentenced to life imprisonment, but who later succeeded in having a new trial granted him, has been placed as the algority of December 21st. n the calendar for December 21st.

The town of Gamarica, in the province of Matanzas, has been attacked by rebels. The insurgents were repulsed, losing four of their men.

File Papers at Night.

TOPEKA, KAS., Nov. 11.—The attorney of the Atchison road, unwilling to resist the order of a State court by refusing to turn the road over to that court's receiver at an early hour Monday court's receiver at an early non-morning took a short turn and secured a transfer of the allen land act case to the United States Circuit Court before the State court's receiver could file a bond and so be qualified to demand the property.

To a complish this it was necessary to a scored with right ride by special train make a secret night ride by special train to Oskaloosa, when the court clerk was to Oskaloosa, when the court clerk was got out of ted, the proper motion filed and a transcript of the case made before the sleeping little town was awake.

A Gang of Forgers.

NEW YORK, Nov. II.—The District Attorney's office has been investigating for several days the workings of a sang of forgers, who have swindled a number of banks in this city. An attempt has been made to trace a connection between them and William E. Valentine, who has been bracer arrest in Brooklyn for some time. and William E. Valentine, who has been under arrest in Brooklyn for some time for giving May Wingate, his mistress, worthless checks to pass. Several men are under arrest charged with various kinds of swindling are said to be members of Valentine's gang. They are "Big Ed" Rice, C. H. McLaughlin, Iseau Heidenleimeral, who forged a check and passed it on Hyde & Behman; Rolindal Smith, under arrest for forgery, and a man named Knowles, and one Walte, Valentine and Charles Abbett, junior member of the firm of J. H. Ba'cer & street, it is said, managed the affairs of the gang.

Co., forwarding againts, of No. 14 South MISS DREWRY WEDDED.

Abbott disappeared in July: It is said that he had ruined his partner, Mr. B. k-er, by signing the firm name to notes which were discounted, it is said, all over the country by agents of the gang. The amount of money which the gang neited by its operations is variously estimated at from $100,000 up. One swindle at ich was worked by a check bearing the rignature of Baker & Co., was the purchase of 15,000,050 feet of lumber from a Pennsylvania man at $14 a thousand feet and the immediate selling of 'it again at $9 b thousand feet. The lumber was jurchased with notes and sold for part cash.

Grafted a Dog's Nerve.

Grafted a Deg's Nerve.

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., Nov. 10.—A successful operation was performed on N. Graybiel, of Caledonia, in the Butterworth Hospital here, which is believed to be without a parallel in the history of the operating-room. Six months ago Graybiel had his right hand mutilated at the wrist on a cut-off saw. The ulnar and median nerves were nearly severed, and so badly torn that the hand was paralyzed. Last month he came here for treatment, and Dr. R. Peterson, on October 25th, undertook the task of removing the lacerated portions of the nerves, and transplanting therein the schatic nerve of a live spaniel. Graybiel and the spaniel transplanting therein the sciatic nerve of a live spaniel. Graybiel and the spaniel were placed under an anaesthetic, and one and one-half inches of each of the torn nerves cut off. The crids were made square, and the nerves from the dog laid in the breach. Silk satures were used to hold the pieces together. Two or three days ago Graybiel announced that feeling had returned to his hand, and to-day he was able to move the hand and fingers quite freely, and full sensation had re-turned to the injured member. The dog turned to the injured member. The dog never recovered from the anaesthetic. The doctors say that in a short time the hand will be as strong as ever, and the man will suffer no inconvenience. The case will be extensively reported to the medical and scientific journals, as every step has been watched by the leading surgeons of the city.

Overrun With Gold,

Overrun With Gold.

BALTIMORE, MD., November H.—The question that is now agitating to cast manuclai circles is. "now to get rid of gold com." Since the election the banks have been fairly overrun with gold. Nobody wams, it, and everybody appears anxious to unload it upon everybody else, one of the leading banks in the city today endeavoired to work off $3,000 in gold on the holder of a check who had presented it to the institution for payment, but the attempt did not succeed. The National Mechanies Benik has reserved over $300,000 in gold since last Tuesday, and is paying it out freely to all witing to receive it. Other local banks, who have received large amounts of gold since the election, and it no easy task in paying it out.

election, find it no easy task in paying it out.

There has been a large increase in cable remittances of money from Europe since the election. Messrs, Alexander isrown & Sons have received more than $100,000. This money was sent abroad before the election by people who were fearful of the results in the event of Mr. Bryan winning the presidency and the enactment of a free-coinage law. This fear having been dispelled by the victory of McKanley, the money is now coming back, and will be invested in enterprises in this city and State.

Scramble for Bonds.

The scramble of bankers and investors yesterday for New York city bonds af-fords a striking illustration of the extent fords a striking illustration of the exten-to which confidence has been restored by the defeat of Bryanism.

When the bonds were offered before election the bids were very few and so low that none could be accepted. Now, in less than a week after the people have declared that a dollar is to remain a del-lar, no less than sixteen millions of bonds are offered—and what happens?

every side we can judge of the danger that we have escaped.—New York Herald

Later South Dakota Returns.

Later South Bakota Returns,
PIERRE, S. D., Nov. II.—Returns fron Gregory came in this afternoon. Thi county had been counted on to give Bryan 100 majority. It gave him only 4. It stil looks as if the Bryan electors would carr, the State by 25 or 30 votes. Lee (Pop. seems to be elected Governor, while the remainder of the Republican State ticke seems to have pulled through. The Lee listature has a Populist majority of 30 listature has a Populist majority of 30 islature has a Populist majority of St. Senator Kyle has a decided lead, and will probably succeed himself.

Octave Thanet's Loss. ELMWOOD, ARK., Nov. II.—The win ter residence and valuable library of Miss Octavia French here was destroyed by fire Sunday night. Miss French he well known in the literary world as "Octave Thanet," the novel and maga-zine writer. The family narrowly eszine writer. The family narrowly e caped. The loss is estimated at $12,000.

STONED A COFFIN Vandals Surprised at Their Ghoulish Work in a Paterson Cemetery.

Work in a Paterson Cemetery.

Vandals were detected at work in the old Presbyterian Cemetery in Patterson yesterday. They had broken onen a vault and were throwing stones at a coffin. Indignant cluizens have appealed to the authorities to take stringent measures to prevent such acts in the future. The cemetery, which is bounded by Market. Vine and Easex streets, lending been neglected by its owners, and a consequence is in a partial state of it in. consequence is in a partial state of it is Many persons who own plots in the ceme Many persons who own plots in the ceme-tery, however, have given their personal care to them, and some parts of the com-etery are in almost perfect order. But the greater part looks like a deserted country churchyard, and this is chiefly due to the work of vandals. Years ego, when the place was arst falling into a state of decline, low characters used to gather there to drink, gamble and ca-rouse generally, and once the police raid-ed a gang which was using the top of a ed a gang which was using the top of a temb for the card table. Then tramp began to inhabit the place, and at tha time the work of destruction of the ceme y began. Tombstones were broken

About twenty young men and toys, shortly after noon yesterlay, were seen busy in a hilly part of the grounds tart. Essex street. All seemed to be dilicint. By engaged at some work, then suddenly they began to throw stones at some thing. Several men who live in the neighbor Several men who live in the neighborhood noticed their actions, and, thinking some mischief was being done, approached the rowdies. At the sight of nem the roughs scattered and field in all directions. The men hastened to the spot whence they had field, and, to their indignation found that the fellows had unearthed a well built grave vanit by destroying the flagstone that covered it. The research flagstone that covered it. The removal of the stone disclosed a coffin in the last stages of decay.

After destroying the vault the vandais had amused themselves by throwing sticks and stones at the coffin, and had removed the lid. A few pones were exposed.

The men, when they saw what had been done, tried to find the vandats, but they had all disappeared. The outrage was then reported to the authorities.

There are other indications of recent vandalism in the cemetery. A stone post fence, surrounding a plot near the destroyed grave, was torn down and the posts scattered broadcast. Other mounds have been destroyed lately, out no other coffins disturbed. coffins disturbed.

Not long ago a man and a woman were sent to jail in Patterson for making their home in one of the deserted vaults,—New York Herald. .

INTERESTING SOCIETY EVENT AT GRACE EPISCOPAL CHURCH,

Handsome Decorations, Fair Women, Gallant Men and a Brilliant Assembly. come of Those Present.

Mr. Adolphus Blair and Miss Virginia Drewry were married at 9 o'clock last evening in Grace Episcopal church. The officiating clergymen were Rev. Drs. Hartley Carmichael, rector of St. Paul's church, and Landon R. Mason, rector of Grace church. The bride is the eldest daughter of Major and Mrs. Ciay Drewry, which is enough said, here in Virginia. Beside that pleasant distinction, she is a charming girl and has been a popular figure in the social world since her debut last plus biair, for years a leading resident of Richmond, and vestryman of St. Paul's parish. He is a fine fellow, bear-ing worthly a name respected all over the State.

THE DECORATIONS

The decorator, Mr. W. L. Armory, had men busy at the church all day Tues-day and the greater part of Wednesday. The result was effective in the extres Pink and white chrysantaemums, ferns, running cedar, and scores of candles were all used about the chancel. The full leauty of the large stained glass window in the rear was made apparent by lights

A white ribbon defined the A white ribben defined the pews re-served. At the head of the middle aisle double gates of smilax opened to admit the bridal party. Just within those gates the groom, who entered with his best man from the vestry-room, met the brids beneath a canopy of smilax, then ascend-ing the chancel steps with her and anbeneath a canopy of smilax, then ascending the chancel steps with her and approaching the officiating clergy. These gates were opened by little Misses Sophie White and Mary Drewry, whose part in the affair was taken to the pleasure of everybody. The young ladies were silver timel over white, and looked charming.

The bridal party—ushers, groomsmen, maid of honor, and bridesmaids—entered in twos, the gentlemen first. The ushers were Messrs, W. S. P. Mayo, Lewis W Grander, George M. Reid, and Julen Binford. The groomsmen were Messrs. A. H. Drewry, Jr., Robert Croxton, T. Gordon Janey, of Leesburg, W. P. Drewry, of New York, J. P. Spindle, of Washington Frank Hlankenship, Clay Drewry and Ivy L. Arrington. These gentlemen, as well as the groom and his best man, Mr. H. Lee Bragg, were the conventional black Lee Brags, were the conventional black with white vests and ties, pearl gloves and bouttonnieres of single white chryand bouttonnieres of single water manning anthemums.

The bridesmaids were Misses Mary Russell, Winchester; Block, of Nashville. Mr. Kizziah Drewry, Martinsville; Annie Henry, of Norfolk; Nannie Stegar, Marianne Meade, Mary McCaw, and Mahlon Bogby, of Texas. Each wore Nile green taffeta with bodice of white mousseline de soie and spangles. The bouquets were of maiden-hair fern, tied with long write taff ta ribbons.

long white taff ta ribbons.

Miss Anne D. Drewry, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor. This charming young person, who is a school girl, wore a pink taffeta bodice, with A well-pleased audience enjoyed a good performance at Central Hall last night, the occasion being a musicale given under the direction of Mr. J. Sebastian Rafwhite mousseline de sole and silver spangles. She carried pink chrysanthe-mums, and made a graceful and piquant

THE BRIDE'S GOWN. Miss Virginia Drewry, the bride wore heavy white satin duchess. The fine old lace with which it was trimmed was the bride on the paternal side.

The waist and skirt were elaborately trimmed, the falls of lace being caught with white satin bows. She wore a veil and carried, instead of the regulation bride's roses, a white "Marriage Bow" a missal of cream-white and gold. She en-tered with her father, who gave her rendering the march from "Lohengrin" as processional; Mendelssohn's as recessional. During the ceremony the Au-THE RECEPTION.

At the conclusion of the eremony a reception at which the guests were limited to the bridal party and a few other trienos, was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Blair by the former's parents.

by the former's parents.

Those present were—in addition to the brianal party—Major and Mrs. Clay Drew-ry, Major and Mrs. A. H. Drewry, Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Drewry, Mr. St. John Coalter, Captain and Mrs. Charles Skin-ker, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Valentine, Mrs. B. anche Drewry, the Misses Drewry, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Hankins, Miss Itankins, Mr. J. D. Mosby, Mr. John Carter, Mar-diaville; Miss Lelia Gray, Miss Weddell, Mr. Louis Hankins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boykin, Mr. Hughes, Messrs. Antrim, Dr. Lewis Bosher, James Rutherford, Mr. Dr. Lewis Bosner, James Ruthertord, Mind Mrs. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Estis, Mrs. Adolphus Blair, Mr. and Mrs. John Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Hard Mrs. And Mrs. R. T. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Scott, Miss Alice Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Rolfe Glover, Mr. Lewis Blair, Mr. Harvicon Blair, Mrs. Harvie, Mrs. Glbbs, Misses Wilson, Misses Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Rolfe Blair, Mrs. Lewis Loddin, Deane, Rolfe Blair, Mrs. Loddin, Deane, 1981, 19 Robert Blankenship, Miss Judith Deane

Miss Alice Henning, Miss Lizzie Patter son and Miss Bernard Harvie. ATTEND THE HORSE SHOW. ATTEND THE HORSE SHOW.

The wedding presents were numerous and valuable, including a handsome sliver se dece-the gift of Mrs. Adolphus Blair, mother of the groom.

The wedding trip will include New York (in order to attend the Horse Carte of the Carte Show), Roston, and other northern cities Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Blair wil

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Blair will be, for the immediate present, at Major Clay Drewry's. They have the cordiat good wishes of scores of friends.

Among those at the church were: Dr. and Mrs. Joseph While, Mrs. S. W. Travers, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Brockentrough, Miss Nellie Rogers, the Misses Warren, Mrs. Morton, Miss Mary Glidam, the Misses Hayes, Mrs. James Pleasants, Judge and Mrs. L. L. Lewis, Miss Lewis, Mrs. James Walker, Miss Annie Rose Walker, Nina Randolph, Julia Lee, Carrie Coleman, Kathleen Anderson, Mamie Hill, Mrs. William Hill, Mrs. James Lyons, the Misses Pace, Mrs. derson, Mamie Hill, Mrs. William Hill, Mrs. James Lyons, the Misses Pace, Mrs. Edward Mayo, Miss Meade Burwell, Mrs. Moses D. Hoge, Jr., Mrs. E. C. Minor, Mrs. Purcell, and many others.

PRETTY WEDDING.

Miss O'Dwyer and Mr. Solari Were Mar. ried Yesterday.

Miss Maggie O'Dwyer and Mr. Jos. Solari were married at St. Patrick's church yesterday morning at 7 o'clock by Rev.

The bride is a popular young lady of Fulton and the groom is a valued employe of the firm of A. Hoen & Co., of this city. The happy couple were city. The happy couple were tendered a sumptuous wedding breakfast by the bride's parents and they left on the 10 o'clock train over the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad for Baltimore and the north Among those in the breakfast party and who accompanied the coupl to the train were Miss Mary O'Dwyer and Mrs. James E. Grady, sisters of the bride; Miss Mamle Balley, Miss Jose Grace and Helen Hayes, Mr. Hugh Ball-Grace and Heien Hayes, Mr. Hugh Ball-ey, of New Brunswick, N. J.; Mr. O'Dwyer, N. Reilly, Mr. and Mrs. So-lari, parents of the groom. Miss Julia Solari, sister of the groom, and others. The ushers were Messrs. Hugh Balley, W. Collins, John L. Roach, Frank Cam-podonico, Frank Solari and D. O.Dwyer, the latter gentleman acting as best man.

At St. Mary's church yesterday morn-ing at 6 o'clock. Mr. Henry Tolker and Miss Kate Traser were married at a nuptial mass. The following gentlemen acted as ushers: Messrs. A. Tolker, Jo-seph Wittcamp, L. B. Hatke and Joseph Traser.

BRILLIANT EVENT.

Elaborate Wedding in Norfolk of Miss White and Mr. Hinton.

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Nov. 11 .-

Special.-Mr. William A. Bell and Miss

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Nov. 11.—Special.—This afternoon at 5 o'clock Miss Clara Johnson, an attractive and accomplished young lady, and Mr. Fred. Manville, a well-known business man, both of this city, were married at the Presbyterian church here, Rev. E. T. Wellford officiating.

The church was well filled by the friends of the parties. The happy couple left for an extended northern tour.

SUCCESSFUL MUSICALE

At the Cathedral Hall Last Night-Many

The funeral of the late Oscar F. Weisiger, Jr., took place at Centenary church yesterday, and was largely at-

Yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the remains of Mrs. Mattle L. Gibbs, wife of Mr. Charles F. Gibbs, were buried in Oakwood Cemetery.

The Silver Tea to be given at Mrs.
Pyle's, 2il east Grace street, will take place Thursday evening should the weather permit, if not the next Thursday.

Teachers Tuesday night acquitted of the lady teachers of Belvidere Sch

Unhappily Expressed.

"Jilson has a most unhappy way of expressing himselif."
"He told me he was going to propose to that charming grass-widow from Chi-

He did. But his clumsy effort to be on-hand and easy spoiled it. He had head these anusions to Chicago divorces until he thought they were true."

"What did he say to the widow?"
"He asked her if she was engaged for her next wedding."—Washington Star.

AMUSEMENTS.

TO-DAY

(Matinee and Evening).

the Gorgeous Spectacle.

MISS PHILADELPHIA.

A CADEMY OF MUSIC,

tended.

Oakwood Cemetery.

Mr. Frank Cunningham,

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 11.-Special.-The most elaborate wedding of the season took Beth Ahaba Last Evening. most elaborate wedding of the season took place to-night at the residence of Mr. William H. White, United States district attorney, when his daughter, Miss Eloise Isabelle, was married to Mr. Orlando Glil Hinton, of Petersburg. The ceremony took place at 7:39 o'clock, and was performed by Rev. Father Wilson, rector of the Church of the Sacred Heart.

The entire house, and especially the parlor in which the ceremony took place, had teen beautifully decorated by Washington florists. florists.

The bridai arch, which was located at the Pembroke avenue side of the apartment, was corposed of roses, chrysanthemums, and smilax. The bridal party entered the parior, the five bridesmaids leading, and the bride, on her father's arm, following. The groom and his best man, Mr. Aaron Milhado, met them at the altar.

arm, following. The groom and his best man, Mr. Aaron Milhado, met them at the altar.

The bride wore an elegant robe of white satin, trimmed with Duchess lace, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. At 8 o'clock the reception was held. It was an elegant affair, lasting until 10 o'clock, when the bridal party departed for New York. The maid of honor was Miss Lizzle Pickett, of Norfolk, and the bridesmaids were Miss Tinsley, of Richmond! Miss Blackford, of Washington, and Miss Seldon and Miss Beli, of Norfolk. The occasion was the marriage of Mr Matz Praag, of Baltimore, to Miss Adele R. Rosenbaum, of this city.

The event, which in point of elaborate brilliancy has never been excelled in this city, was a chrysanthemum wedding.

aisle were arches of smilax, while white chrysanthemums formed the supporting posts to these arches. The altar was a mass of beautiful palms and natural beautiful.

THE BRIDAL GOWN.

As the bride came up the aisle a subdued murnur of admiration ran through with point lace and chiffon, with the sweet-scented orange blossom in her hair and a veil of point lace caught with dia-mond hearts, she was indeed beautiful in her fresh blown womanhood. The scene at the ahar was one of rare beauty. Grouped around the contracting parties were the bridesmaids and Miss Irma Rosenbaum wore a gown of white silk, covered with point d'esprit and trimmed with green ribbons. The rest of the bridesmalds wore dress-

BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

After the ceremony the bridal party and those who were invited entered carriages and were driven to the Jefferson, where the reception was held. Managers Ainslie and Webster are royal entertainers, and last evening they spread such a marriage feast as has never yet graced the festive boards of that famous hostolics.

In the western section of the handsome dining-hall the reception was held.
Here it was that Mr. and Mrs. Praag received the good wishes and congratulations that were showered upon them.
In the central section was spread the banquet. It was claborate, ret perfect in appointment. Covers were laid for 125 guests. In the centre was a large buffet table, and all around were small tables.
The decorations used were Philadelphia chrysanthemums. The menu was faultless in detail, and a variety of tempting dainties loaded down the festive boards.

To Receive the Grand Commander.

Libertas Lodge of Perfection, No. 5, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Right Free Mascnry, will meet to-night at St. Alban's Hall to receive the venerable Grand Commander Thomas H. Caswell, Rev. J. Y. Fair, venerable master, will preside, and Captain John F. Mayer will introduce and Captain John F. Mayer will introduce the grand commander.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

Other Matters.

Mini
All The scene w.

The groom, who, by the way, is a manly fellow of tine qualities and genial disposition, is one of Baltimore's most prominent business men. He is the head of a large produce commission business.

His bride is the daughter of Mrs. I.

N. Rosenbaum. She is a beautiful and accomplished woman, and possessed of one of those attractively sweet dispositions that endear her to all whom she meets.

After an extensive tour, Mr. and Mrs.

After an extensive tour, Mr. and Mrs.

MISS PHILADELPHIA MADE A BIT. She Appears Before a Large Audience Last

 The ladies of Monumental church will give an oyster lunch to-day from 12 to 4 P. M., at 807 cast Main street, and they hope their friends will give them a The Council Committee on Schools and who was charged by a gentleman whose son had been suspended, with treating the parent discourteously. Mrs. William J. Young, of Norfolk, wife of the Rev. Dr. William J. Young, form-ally passion of Park-Place Methodist Epis-copal church, is the guest of Mrs. S. E. Bishop, 523 north Eighth street. The young ladies of Asbury Methodist Episcopal church will give a Colonial Tea at the church, Friday night, November 13th, at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be served and a good musical programme will be rendered.

head of her class.

A feature of the entertainment the fea-and their overture was received with applause.

The story of the play is an old one, and is patterned after Henry Dixie's "Seven Ages," which saw the light of day, and also departed this life, at the Standard Theatre, New York, about eight years ago. It has already been told in the columns of The Times. Throughout the absurd plot many pretty choruses, quartetts, dances, marches and catchy topical songs are strewn, which, together with a galaxy of pretty girls, handsome men and beautiful costumes and scenery afford an evening of solid amusement.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING

MISS ADELE R. ROSENBAUM THE BRIDE OF MR. MATE PRAAG.

A Handsome Reception and Supper al The Jefferson-Beautiful Scene at Faultlessly gowned women, men in the conventional but immaculate evening dress, exquisite decorations, a blaze of brilliant lights, soft, sweet music that lingered upon the ears, and, above all, that air of happiness and health that is always attendant upon a marriage. Such is a picture of the wedding party which last evening filled Beth Ahaba Synagogue with one of the most distinguished and brilliant social gatherings that has ever assembled in that honored

THE DECORATIONS. The Synagogue was exquisitely beau-tiful in its decorations. Over each of the chandeliers leading up the central a mass of beautiful palms and natural flowers.

Just over the foot of the altar, where the bridal couple knelt, was suspended a canopy, and above this was a flock of beautiful white doves that appeared to be in flight. White ribbons joined them together, and they appeared to be the white-winged messengers of the Charlet of Love. Ida Lee Tansiil, daughter of Mr, and Mrs. W. N. Tansiil, both of this city, were married to-night at the Baptist church. Rev. Dr. T. S. Dunaway officiating. The church was handsomely decorated. Miss Lucie T. Tansiil, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. S. C. Beil, brother of the groom, best man.

The other attendants were Miss Bettie Cole with Mr. Rufus King, Miss Madge Wheeler with Mr. P. M. Woodford, Miss Annie May Brent with Mr. James Rollins, Washington, Miss Addie Embrey with Mr. E. M. Tansiil, Miss Virgie K. Scaggs with Mr. S. E. Eastburn.

The bridesmaids were dressed in white organdle over silk, satin ribbon trimnings. The ushers were Messrs. Horace Tansiil and Richard Bell, of Washington; William N. Blake and Wistar Embrey. Mrs. J. R. Hicks rendered the missic.

Chariot of Love.

Shortly after 9 o'clock Rabbi E. N. Calisch spoke the words that made the couple before him man and wife. The eremony was solemn, impressive, and the assemblage.

In a gown of white satin, trimmed

groomsmen.
The former were Miss Irma Rosen-

The former were Miss Irma Rosenbaum, maid of honer; Miss Cecile Gugenheimer, of Lynchburg; Miss Corinne Rosenbaum, Miss Grace Kull, of Petersburg; Miss Hortense Guggenheimer, of Raltimore; Miss Jean Myers, and Miss Kate Goodman.

The groomsmen were Mr. Harry Praag, of Baltimore; Mr. D. Rosenheim, of Savannah, Ga.; Mr. Frank Houseman, of New York, Mr. Talmer, and Mr. Fishman, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. George Davis, of Baltimore, and Mr. Henry S. Hutzier, of this city.

es of simple white, trimmed with green ribbons, and carried bunches of chrysanthemums.
BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

Mr. Frank Cunningham, as usual, crowned himself with glory in the part which he took. Mr. David Ritchie was encored, and Mr. Charles Philips was also ferced to respond to a re-call. The solo, "Happy Day," by Mrs. Jasper Rowe, was received with an ovation. Both Miss Yetta Herold and Miss J. Murphy were greatly applauded, and, in fact, all who contributed toward the evening's entereainment were well received, and deserve praise for their efforts. telry.

In the western section of the hand-Thesday morning about 2 o'clock a negro man nemed James E. Carter walked into the First police station carrying in his arms a baby, which he claimed was his own. He was arrested and the child turned over to its mother. The man is evidently a lunatic, judging from his actions.

actions.
Yesterday he was sent to the city jail, and to-day a commission of lunacy will be held upon him. TOAST TO THE BRIDE.

It is useless to say that the toast to the bride was drunk with a will, and a city, will leave to-day for Jacksonville Fla., where they will make their home. In the City Circuit Court yesterday, in the case of A. J. Ford against J. G. Mc-Cune, judgment was rendered for $112.65. The Rev. Junius Wilkins will preach at the West-End Mission, 1206 west Cary street, at 8 o'clock this evening, and all will be welcome. Night

The large audience that went to the Academy of Music to be amused for two hours and a half last night were not disappointed for the extravaganza, "Miss Philadelphia," is replete with amusing situations, catchy music, pretty girls, handsome costumes and magnificent situations, catchy music, pretty girls, handsome costumes and magnificent stage settings.

The work of Willie Collier is in line with that of Nat. Goodwin, and in fact, he resembles that actor as he appeared in his carlier days. His efforts to amuse the audience last night were crowned with success, and he was materially assisted by Joseph Coyne, Harry Watson, Budd Ross and John Hyans.

The ladies of the cast were not unusually brifliant, save in personal appearance, out that goes a great way in the spectacular. Miss linez Mecusker, as "Ruth Springarden," was very pretty spectacular. Miss Inez Mecusker, as "Ruth Springarden." was very pretty and wore some exceptionally handsome costumes, but Miss Louise Allen easily carried off the palm among the ladies as an exceedingly clever comedienne. Miss Allen is also an excellent terpsichorean artist and received many encores. Her dance in the second act was a most finished affair, and I cannot recall having ever seen its equal in the ranks of female eccentric dances. I think I can remember Miss Allen and her sister Ray as being in the coryphee's line in Kiralfy's "Black Crook" Company several years ago. They were likely even then, and Sister Louise is now easily at the head of her class.

ture in part to a Southern audience, was the orchestra, which was composed ex-clusively of ladies under the leadership of Profesor Clarence West. The ladies handled their instruments in good shape, and their overture was received with appliance.

Mr. John W. Starke, the publisher of the Virginia Volunteer, has just re-turned to the city from Hanover county, where he went to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Charlotte E. Starke, which took place last week. with a superb cast. Received with great applaure by a crowded house last night. noif-it